Each phase demonstrates evolving aesthetic priorities, iconography, and techniques, influenced heavily by religious and political changes.

Key Features of Late Antique and Early Christian Art

Iconography and Symbolism

In the late antique and early Christian periods, art was primarily used as a means of religious expression and instruction. Since Christianity was initially a persecuted faith, much of the art was clandestine, hidden within catacombs and private residences.

- Symbolic motifs: The Good Shepherd, the Ichthys (fish), the peacock, and the vine symbolized Christ and eternal life.
- Use of allegory: To communicate Christian teachings subtly, artists used allegorical figures derived from classical motifs.

Artistic Styles and Techniques

- Mosaic Art: Developed extensively in places like Ravenna, mosaics depicted biblical scenes with vivid tesserae, blending classical techniques with Christian themes.
- Frescoes and wall paintings: Often found in catacombs, these served both decorative and didactic purposes.
- Sculpture: More reserved during early Christianity, focusing on symbolic rather than realistic representations, such as the sarcophagus reliefs.

Architectural Innovations

- Basilica plan: The shift from Roman basilica architecture to Christian basilicas, with a nave, aisles, and an apse.
- Use of the apse: As a focal point for religious imagery, often decorated with mosaics depicting Christ or the Virgin Mary.

Transition to Medieval Art

The Medieval period saw the consolidation of Christian dominance in art, with significant regional variations and stylistic developments.

Byzantine Art

- Iconoclasm and Iconography: The period experienced debates over the use of images, leading to the destruction of icons and their later restoration.
- Mosaics and illuminated manuscripts: Richly decorated with gold backgrounds and stylized figures, emphasizing spiritual rather than naturalistic representation.
- Iconostasis: A screen decorated with icons separating the nave from the sanctuary.

Romanesque Art (circa 1000-1150 AD)

- Sculpture and reliefs: Used to teach biblical stories to an illiterate populace; prevalent on portals and capitals.
- Illuminated manuscripts: Highly decorated with vivid miniatures and intricate initial letters.

Gothic Art (circa 1150-1400 AD)

- Architectural innovations: Pointed arches, flying buttresses, and large stained glass windows, exemplified by cathedrals like Notre-Dame.
- Sculpture and stained glass: More naturalistic and expressive, aimed at inspiring awe and devotion.
- Panel paintings: Transitioned from icons to more secular and narrative scenes.
