Development began around 1974 when Nagai was working on Mazinger Z, which had already revolutionized the mecha genre with its pilot-robot dynamic. Inspired by his previous success, Nagai aimed to create a new series that would elevate the genre further, introducing a more detailed backstory, complex characters, and a darker tone.

The series was produced by Toei Animation and broadcast in Japan in 1975. Its rapid success prompted international licensing, notably in France, where it was dubbed and broadcast as Goldorak. This adaptation would significantly influence its global reception, especially in European markets.
